

1. The first bar is blue and represents the first data point.

2. The second bar is blue and represents the second data point.

3. The third bar is blue and represents the third data point.

4. The fourth bar is blue and represents the fourth data point.